It is a lack of the body's ability to self-regulate its own cell growth, to clean up its own blood, tissues, bones, bone marrow, and so on.

Tobacco companies make people poor, because they hook them on a product that's expensive to buy; and they have to keep buying it, because they're addicted to it he's clutching a Powerbook, he crashes his car into a church, and he's shouting Steve Jobs' name.

The reason they think they can cure these diseases if they just have enough money and enough time is because conventional medicine remains stuck in the paradigm of germ theory.

" That's been the promise they've held out for decades.

So they may use a statin drug on a temporary basis, only for a few weeks or a couple of months at most.

In fact, there isn't even a tissue or a physical element that you can point to and look at under a microscope and say, "That is cancer.

These are the facts from industry.

They used Joe Camel, a cartoon character, to sell cigarettes, because they knew that if they could get adolescents hooked on nicotine, they had a customer for life.

They are created as a result of many different inputs, or causes that the patient undergoes, or those which the patient chooses to engage in.

Therefore, the idea that you can cure or reverse these fictitious diseases is invalid at its very premise.
